

The Lizard

This quiet Wymondham conservation area following the upper valley of the River Tiffey includes a small community of historic cottages.

The Lizard Trustees have established the Lizard Walk, a circular route about 1½ miles long, through the Lizard, along a public footpath to the former Wymondham-Fornsett railway line, and back by way of the embankment. Two flights of steps and river bridges have been provided to give access.

Link:

<http://www.countrysideaccess.norfolk.gov.uk/walk.aspx?id=76>